

Dear Mr Algar,

Thank you ever so much for the trip to the college. I enjoyed almost everything except for my squashed sandwich at lunchtime. The best that we done with the icy-cold water was fun, so was the bit when Mr North was running up and down and we had to watch his heart rate that was funny. Say hi to everyone member of the staff for me and goddluck to all the people going on the ~~exte~~ expedition, oh and I almost forgot to say thank you for the hat.

From Chinwe.
